7:00 pm – Reception, 7:30pm – Tasting

A golfer, an actor, a hockey player and a baseball pitcher – all Canadian and all big stars. What do they have in common? They have all used their names to brand some excellent Ontario wines. The wines of these stars will be sampled at Calamus Estate Winery where we will also be able to view the stars – the celestial variety that is. Calamus has a unique feature built into the winery – a deep space telescope and observatory.

This event will feature the wines of Mike Weir, Dan Akroyd, Wayne Gretzky and Fergie Jenkins. Brian Pihack of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada will be with us to do a presentation on star gazing. Join us for this star studded evening as we have the opportunity to see the telescope and, weather permitting, view the solar system. Food and mingling will follow the tasting, as usual.

Please note that we are starting the tasting at 7:00 p.m., a little later than usual so that the skies can darken and allow us to see the stars.

Directions:

Traveling on the Q.E.W. take the Victoria Ave. exit and go south through Vineland continuing past King Street. Drive through the next set of lights and take a left turn at Sixth Avenue where you see the sign for Ball's Fall Conservation Area. Follow Sixth Ave around the conservation area over the bridge to the top of the hill and turn right onto Glen Road. Stop at the first barn on your right.
