What's Different in Wine Country Ontario

The Faculty Club - University of Toronto

Monday, January 16, 2012

Reception - 6:00pm, Tasting – 6:30pm

Some Ontario wineries out there are “pushing the envelope” ... “thinking outside the bottle” ... “venturing in new directions”. They are making wines from non-mainstream varieties or different styles from mainstream varieties. And, they are doing a great job of this. We thought that you would be interested in trying some. We know that the winemakers would love to have you taste their pioneering efforts.

So, we have assembled a collection of some of these interesting wines for you to taste here in Toronto.

Treesje Bjogan, Niagara Chapter member, Manager of Retail Sales and Tours at Vineland Estates and an educator with Niagara College's Wine Program, will be our guest tasting leader. She led a similar tasting for the Niagara chapter in August 2011.
