Each year in Niagara we recognize the excellence of our local grape growers by crowning one of them as the Niagara Grape King or Queen. Our last event to recognize these men and women was held in 2005 and there have been four new kings crowned since that time. On Friday, July 24, 2009, the Niagara Chapter of the Ontario Wine Society would like to salute the recent kings: Doug Hernder (2005), Matthias Oppenlaender (2006), Kevin Watson (2007) and the reigning monarch Lou Puglisi (2008).

Doug Hernder will moderate and introduce the kings. It should be an interesting and amusing evening. We will be tasting many of the grape varieties their vineyards produce for wineries such as Peller, Jackson-Triggs, Inniskillin and Thirteenth Street.

The event will be held at the spectacular Jackson-Triggs Niagara Estate winery. The winery will provide a free tour at 5:30 p.m. to those who sign up in advance on the form below. There will be a reception at 6:30 pm featuring Jackson-Triggs Cuvee Close Sparkling wine. There will be food to share after the tasting by Chef David House.

After the event the winery's boutique will open for members who wish to purchase Jackson-Triggs and Le Clos Jordanne wines.

Directions:

Traveling on the Q.E.W. over the Garden City Skyway from the west, take the Glendale exit north (second exit under overpass) and follow to York Road, turn right. Drive along York Road and turn left at Concession 7. Follow Concession to Highway 55 also called Niagara Stone Road. Turn right and follow Highway 55 almost to the Old Town of Niagara-on-the-Lake. Jackson-Triggs is on the right.
