What a special treat we have for you in December. Our event will feature Le Clos Jordanne Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays from the exceptional 2009 vintage. Michael Vaughan of Vintage Assessments called the 2009 wines from Le Clos “the most Burgundian vintage yet.” Tony Aspler gave the Le Clos Vineyard Pinot Noir a rating of 93.

The evening will begin with a reception featuring sparkling wines from host winery Jackson-Triggs served with trays of cheeses and breads.

Then we will move to the beautiful barrel cellar where Le Clos winemaker Sebastien Jacquey will lead us through a tasting of EIGHT Le Clos wines, four Pinot Noirs and four Chardonnays, served in Riedel stemware. Both flights will include the amazing Grand Clos wines. There will also be Pinot Noir from the highly regarded La Petite and Claystone vineyards and Chardonnay from the Talon Ridge and Claystone vineyards. The delicious Village Pinot and Village Chardonnay are included as well.

Le Clos' Candis Scammell will outline the history of Le Clos and join winemaker Sebastien as he takes questions during the Burgundy-style tasting (reds first).

After the tasting, we will move to the Jackson-Triggs Tasting Gallery where Vincor Chef David Penny will present food stations with a Burgundy pairing focus. Note: Menu items listed at the end of this notice.

Dessert will include Cabernet Franc Ice Syrup brownies and JT Cabernet Franc Icewine.

The wine boutique at Jackson-Triggs is the only place you can taste and buy all Le Clos Jordanne wines. It will be open after the event for anyone who wishes to purchase Le Clos or JT wines.

Please, drink responsibly.

Please note that we have a limited capacity for this event. Due to the size of the venue we can only accommodate 48 people.
