If you've ever had a glass of wine, you've probably considered the possibility of having your own wine cellar to stock pile your favorite bottles of vino. Maybe you already have the dream cellar. For novices and experts alike, if you have any interest in wine cellaring this event will give you the tips you need to create or maintain your own wine cellar.

The Oakville Chapter of the Ontario Wine Society would like to invite you, your friends and family to attend a fun and informative evening of Wine Cellaring with "The Wine Guy", Tony Aspler. Tony has selected some fantastic wines to compliment the discussion for the evening.

Tony Aspler is not only an accomplished lecturer and wine educator, he has also been writing about wine for over 30 years. Both nationally and internationally Tony contributes to many reputable wine magazines and publications. He has written fictional wine novels and fifteen wine and food books, the most current being Tony Aspler's Cellar Book.

Tony has been a key contributor to the growth and success of the Ontario wine industry through the creation of the Ontario Wine Awards, and his ongoing involvement with Cuvee, The Independent Wine & Spirit Trust and The Canadian Wine Library.

Copies of Tony Aspler's Cellar Book, will be available for purchase.

Seating is limited, so please register early to avoid disappointment. Attendees must be 19 years of age or older. Reservations will not be taken over the phone. Register online at: <http://www.ontariowinesociety.com/events.html>. Please advise us upon registration if you have any special dietary requirements.

What not to wear: Perfumes and colognes interfere with the wine tasting experience and can be offensive to other attendees. Please refrain from using scented products
